

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) Pipes, Drums and Dancers of "National Division" were formed in the spring of 2000. Wearing the very distinctive RCMP tartan and the world-renowned red serge of the RCMP, the band is comprised primarily of citizen volunteers but also does include police officers and employees of the force. The Band and Dancers perform regularly for the public in support of regional and local community endeavours including charity fundraisers, fairs, festivals, parades, sport and cultural awards ceremonies. As part of their official duties, the RCMP Pipes and Drums also perform for state and official occasions, and associated RCMP ceremonial functions.

Many thanks again to the 30+ people who all contributed to this amazing video, from our MC, and bugler, to the pipes, drums and dancers, and to Shabraque. A special thanks again to Kelsey for pulling it all together.

The Youtube link has been made public, so as well as for your own viewing pleasure, you can share it with family and friends.

Happy Mother's Day to everyone.

Graeme

The following is the reply (self explanatory email) sent to Graeme Ogilvie, from the Past President ODVA, Michel Pelletier.

Graeme, Thank You very much for the invitation to join you in these exceptional demonstrations and production of the very fine RCMP Pipe Band and Dancers.

You and your Team do us very Proud ! Suzanne of course you also do a wonderful job of your M.C. duties and add such class to the presentation.

In particular, I want to personally Thank You for your ongoing support and participation in the RCMP Veterans' Vigil at the RCMP National Memorial Cemetery that we celebrate every 23 May the Force's Anniversary.

Michel Pelletier, Past President
