

RCMP EDMONTON VETS'

DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

Merry Christmas Everyone!

Each year in November we hold our Annual General Meeting (AGM) during our regular Dinner meeting which is a requirement of the Association. Prior to the meeting we were honoured to have Shawn Whitfield and Bob Cotton from the Edmonton Veterans Association Food Bank. We learned very quickly they are NOT merely a Food Bank. They are there for Veteran Assistance with staff on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week providing the following services:

- ❖ EMERGENCY VETERANS ASSISTANCE COSTS: They provide funding for any financial crises a Veteran may be experiencing by covering rent, mortgage, utilities, insurance, car payments, dental and medications all coupled with financial services and a financial planner to alleviate future difficulties,
- ❖ VETERAN OUTREACH: They work with Police, Fire, EMS, AHS and shelters to connect with Veterans who are at risk or homeless. With the help of other organizations, they have housed at risk Veterans in hotels or their rooming house until suitable housing and employment can be found,
- ❖ VETERAN ADVOCACY SERVICES: They help set up Veterans with VAC accounts, filing medical claims, screening for Operational Stress Injuries (OSI), connecting Veterans with other Government Assistance Programs such as AISH, Alberta's Works Senior Benefits Programs and more and are on call 24 hours a day,
- ❖ THEIR THRIFT STORE: The main purpose is to create employment for Veterans who struggled to seek employment in the past. They also help provide furniture, household goods, clothes for Vets transitioning from homelessness or a break down in the family unit,

Bob Cotton

- ❖ WILLS AND ESTATE PLANNING: They have recognized most of the Veteran community have never drawn up a will. They also cover burial costs if required,
- ❖ TAXES: They have realized many Vets have not filed their taxes for many years and by not doing this, the Vet may not be eligible for Social Assistance, AISH, etc.,
- ❖ PET PROMISE PROGRAM: This program was implemented in 2020 when they learned many Veterans could not afford the required care for their pets. The Association has recognized the importance pets play in the well being of the Veterans they serve.

Jerry presented, on behalf of our Division, Shawn and Bob an appreciation gift and a $500.00 cheque for the Veterans Food

Depending on how much money is forthcoming from the silent auction at the Christmas Dinner on the 13th December, we hope to donate some more money to this most worthy cause.

Vern Colley, our new Vice President, attended with Elina Vlasov and her 4-year-old Arina are here from Ukraine as refugees. Ellina's husband, Mykhailo was unable to attend. The family came from Maripol with only three suitcases full of clothing. Vern has assisted this family with finding a place to live, furnishings, clothing and more utilizing his connections with the St. Basil's Catholic Church in this regard. Vern is one of many of our Vet members who have helped Ukrainian refugees either directly or through their donations. Thank you all for everything you do for this cause!

Vern also invited Vitalii & Diana Daveydenko who were both Police officers in Ukraine until the Russians came in and fired all the Ukrainian Police officers. Vitalii is interested in getting back into police work when he gets his permanent citizenship and has already applied with the RCMP and EPS. Diana has also indicated she wishes to follow Vitalii once he finishes his citizenship process. Vern met the couple at the Ukrainian Social Services, 117th Avenue and 97th St in Edmonton.

The above were picked as wearing the ugliest Christmas sweaters: L to R: Don Martin, Marg Elliott, Elina Vlasov and Vern Colley.

The November gathering is where we ask everyone to wear their “Ugly” Christmas Sweater and there was not shortage of ugly sweaters. Of course, when people go out of their way to wear something ugly, some are picked as having the ugliest. Congratulations to the ones on the left and thanks to everyone that participated.

On the evening of Tuesday, 13th December, we came together at our Christmas Dinner and Silent Auction gathering. As usual, prior to eating I called upon our Chaplain, Cyril Gowler, for the blessing. We surprised him by presenting him with a newly made stole as his role of Edmonton Division's Chaplain. After the blessing we all enjoyed the food catered by the staff at Woodvale Community Facilities, and as usual, it was exceptional as this hungry bunch below can attest to.

Following the meal every member of the Woodvale catering staff, including the Manager of Woodvale, Margaret Tokaryk, as noted to the right, was presented with a small gift for our appreciation for everything they do for us not only on this occasion, but throughout the year. Below are some more pictures of this evening.

There were sixty-six items up for auction, donated by many of our members and some from others outside our Association. We thank you all for the donations, and of course, we thank those who attended this function for buying them! One of the items was the quilt made by a member of Cypress Hills Division as shown here.

The auction items alone brought in over $2,000.00, and besides that we had over $500.00 donated. We ended up bringing in just under $2,700.00 which will be used to purchase a food hamper for a very needy family in Athabasca. We will also be donating to some Ukrainian families with the remainder going to the Veterans Association Foodbank in Edmonton.

Tom Burkett also presented service pins and bars to the following members: Mel Malowany and Sandra McKinney – 5-year bar and pin, Barry Callbeck – 10-year bar, Rick Head – 5 & 10-year bars and pin, Reg Boughen – 25-year bar, Dianne Lehman – Director bar/pin, Vern Colley – Vice President Bar/pin.

Christmas Hamper – 2022

On December 16, 2022, a cool Friday morning, four members of the Edmonton RCMP Vets' Association commenced shopping at the Village Tree Save on Foods store in St. Albert. As our selected family numbered ten, consisting of 2 Grandparents/Parents and eight children, shopping was a challenge. Shoppers Jim and Stella Medley, Elaine Schnepf, and Jerry Plastow managed the shopping carts ensuring all basic food and extras were purchased for this large family to have a special Christmas season.

Both Manager, Shawn, and Assistant Manager, Kristie, made this a smooth shopping trip. Shawn, as Cashier, timed it right to allow Elaine and Stella to keep adding to the cart.

A trip was made to our recipient family at Athabasca connecting with members of the Athabasca RCMP Detachment. When asked to identify a needy family, Athabasca Detachment quickly accepted the task to help and accompanied us to the home. The detachment members researched and purchased suitable Christmas gifts for the family. Delivery of the hamper was made with the help of three members of the Detachment being S/Sgt Mike Hall, Cpl. Al Caldwell, and Cst. Amy Prescott.

Cst Amy Prescott, Jim Medley, S/Sgt Mark Hall, Jerry Plastow, Cpl Al Caldwell

The inspiration of Jim Medley in 2009 for the Hampers Program has seen Volunteers travel to detachments in our Division area since then with exception of the Covid years.

Often travelling together, the four of us believe this hamper was in the top four we have actively been a part of since it is inception.

This Hamper would not have been possible without the success of the Silent Auction held on Dec. 13, 2022.

We thank all the volunteers and the Social Committee members for their help in all aspects required from the setting up, cleaning up, closing out the bid sheets, and making donations to the event. To all of you who donated items and cash, we thank you. (From Kees: I would be remiss if I did not thank Jerry & Elaine for co-ordinating the entire Silent Auction – VERY WELL DONE!)

Sales were wild on some items and many deals were gained on others. We thank you all for your bids and for making purchases.

We deem the Silent Auction was indeed a success to enable our division to give generously to the hamper for this much needy family. We know this gesture will make their Christmas a very merry one.

Jerry

From the CO
Alberta Highlights – December

Seasons greetings! December has arrived quickly after many eventful months and now, as the year winds down and we move into the holiday season, I hope that this will be a time for everyone to enjoy some well-deserved rest and cheer with loved ones.

Last month was an important time of remembrance in our country and for the Alberta RCMP with Remembrance Day and Indigenous Veterans Day. It is always an honour to be able to give special acknowledgment to all who have served and sacrificed for our collective freedom. This month I will touch on some of our activities and current important topics to share with you. Through all the challenges of recent years, there are still moments that remind us why we do what we do. Policing is by no means an easy career, but it is an honourable path that we have chosen, and the rewards can be high. What our employees and members do every day to contribute to the safety and well-being of our communities, and what you as Veterans have already done for so many years, makes me proud.

Update on Alberta Police Service

Newly appointed Premier Danielle Smith has now been in her seat for just over a month and she has issued mandate letters to many of her ministers, including Minister Tyler Shandro, the Minister of Justice, and Minister Mike Ellis, Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Services. Within the letters, there is direction to move forward with establishing an Alberta Provincial Police Service.

This is exactly what Premier Smith has said she would move to do since assuming her role as the leader of the province. The letters seem to formalize her direction to pursue an Alberta police service that would augment mental health and addictions crisis response resources.

The mandate letters that were recently issued by Premier Danielle Smith were to formalize the government's direction to pursue an Alberta police service to augment mental health and addictions crisis response resources.

The scope of the role of the Alberta RCMP in this decision has not yet been determined and the government has not yet expanded or shared how provincial policing might be augmented or affected throughout the upcoming months.

What I would like to focus on is how important it is at this time to continue to recognize the importance and value of the Alberta RCMP in this province. We have relationships and history with our communities and citizens that we continue to foster and grow. I can assure you that the commitment, professionalism, history of service, and invaluable hard work of Alberta RCMP employees, both past and present, is enduring and has a deep impact within our communities. We are fiercely proud to serve this province and be a part of the RCMP.

Regardless of any stages or steps that are yet to come, we will continue to work closely with citizens, community leaders and community stakeholders in maintaining our commitment to the safety and security of Albertans. We have the support of the communities we serve across Alberta, and we acknowledge and support the importance of Albertans having a voice and having an active role in policing in the province.

I am proud of the work of each employee to contribute to the success of the whole organization. I am confident in the police service we provide for all Albertans, and I am grateful for the commitment, professionalism, and resiliency of everyone in the organization, including our Veterans.

Celebrating the RCMP 150th birthday in 2023

In 2023, the RCMP will be celebrating a milestone 150th birthday on May 23. The 150th anniversary is an important milestone in the history of the organization that is linked with the 156-year-old story of Canada since Confederation. RCMP 150 is going to be an opportunity to acknowledge the stories of our past alongside the ongoing unfolding of the RCMP's contribution to the story of Canada. This is an opportunity to emphasize our commitment to, and pride in, all RCMP employees, and walk with humility and in reconciliation as we chart the way forward on our path to a more modern, diverse, inclusive and trusted RCMP.

The RCMP is an iconic part of Canadian identity and is an internationally-recognized organization with a rich history. There is no other police service in this country that can offer the career challenges and opportunities that the RCMP can. There is pride in the Red Serge uniform and badge, and this is the year we can celebrate all that the RCMP has been, is, and will be.

Albertans have a historic, proud and sentimental tie to the RCMP. The 150th anniversary will be a chance to reflect on the contribution that the RCMP has made, and will continue to make, in service to Canadians and the security of our country. The RCMP's footprint spans every province and territory and beyond our borders through international policing and peacekeeping.

This is an especially meaningful time to have pride in our service and our dedication to the people we serve. We look forward to sharing our appreciation and celebration with our communities and within our division across our detachments as well. All employees and all the people we serve will be welcomed in our milestone celebration. We also look forward to including our valued Veterans in our activities and I will continue to share information about the 150th celebration through the months to come.

The Alberta Regimental Pipe, Drums & Dancers band attended competition in Uruguay

I am proud to share that in late October the Alberta Regimental Pipe, Drums & Dancers band attended and competed at the Scottish Pipe Band Association of South America's (SPBASA) 9th Gathering (G9) in Montevideo, Uruguay.

The Alberta Regimental Pipe, Drums & Dancers band was formed in Edmonton in the early 1990s and is comprised of civilian, military and RCMP volunteer members, led by Pipe Major Mike Johnson and Drum Major Jared Redekopp. Over the course of the band's 29-year history, they have performed throughout Alberta and Canada and have also performed in the United States and Europe, including attending the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge.

This was the first time a pipe band from outside South America has attended the event and there were 15 musicians and four dancers travelling to the Uruguayan competition. Over the course of six days, they competed in three events, participating in a massed band parade, conducted clinics and performed in support of the Embassy of Canada to Uruguay.

All costs for the trip were fundraised by the band through a variety of events including their annual Robbie Burns dinner, silent auctions as well as honorariums from performances.

In 2023, the band will be celebrating their 30th anniversary which coincides with the 150th anniversary of the RCMP. For more details about the band or the trip to Uruguay, visit their website rcmppipeband.ca or Facebook @KDivBand page.

Happy Holidays 2022

This year we are very welcoming of the holiday season which, for many of us, finally looks a little more familiar and a reminder of all we should be grateful for. Looking back, even to the beginning of this year, we can be proud of the ways we overcame challenges together and remained optimistic for future days. I hope we are all together in the hope to move forward into the new year with a renewed spirit.

I continue with sincere appreciation and gratitude for the hard work and dedication of all Alberta RCMP employees across this province throughout this year. I also want to personally thank our Veterans for their invaluable and continued support. The legacy and experience from their years of service continues to guide us as an example of excellence and remains a proud aspect of our continuing success.

Policing is such a dynamic and unpredictable profession, but greatest reward which sustains us is the positive difference we make in the lives of individuals, neighbours, families and communities around us. These are our neighbours, our families, and our communities we serve. The contribution we all make together for the safety and well-being of Albertans remains a source of deep pride and motivation in the RCMP.

In the days to come, although we do not any further information about the future of provincial policing, I continue to hear great things from the communities, community leaders, and citizens we serve. I am continuously impressed with the professionalism and work ethic of our employees in keeping communities safe no matter what the circumstances are. This dedication and care we have for each other is the assurance of our resilience together into 2023.

Wishing everyone safety, warmth, and wellness throughout December.

Happy holidays and all the best for the New Year.

Edmonton RCMP Veterans' Executive Meeting Minutes November 24/2022

Woodvale Community Centre, Edmonton

Meeting called to order: 10:00 am

Members Present: Kees Kikkert, Jerry Plastow, Elaine Schnepf, Barry Callbeck, Jim Medley, Eric Lafoy, Tom Burkett, Denise Burkett, Bob Bacchus, Tom Dunlop, Vern Colley.

Unable to Attend: Randy Montgomery, Linda Plomp, Bob Stewart, Nick Taylor, Roger Goulet, Bruce Allen, Dianne Lehman, S/M Leilani Collins.

Barry Callbeck, Secretary:

- Moved the minutes from October 20/2022 Executive Meeting be adopted as published. Seconded, Jerry Plastow. Carried
- Updated the Executive on discussions with the Provincial Chief Firearms Officer (CPFO). He is presently looking into the rifle's origins and is confident it will be classified as an antique.

Kees Kikkert, President:

- With the Remembrance Day ceremony at the University Butter Dome cancelled, Kees asked about how Exec members observed Remembrance Day. Unfortunately, the presence of the Veterans at some detachments was disappointing as there seemed to be little knowledge of RCMP Veterans' and the significance of their attendance. It would seem there is insufficient direction to Detachments in recognizing our attendance and that it should be inclusive and respectful.
- Kees brought to the table the need for a new computer for Randy Montgomery, our Communications Director. Randy is presently trying to use an old computer previously used by Linda and it is just not meeting his needs. Kees has researched the cost of a replacement and found one on sale.
 - Jerry Plastow made a Motion to proceed with the purchase of the new laptop computer, seconded by Bob Bacchus, carried.
 - Vern Colley brought forward a Motion that Kees purchase extended warranty for said computer, seconded by Jerry Plastow, carried.

Kees on behalf of Dianne Lehman, Director, Support Advocate:

- Verification Services, Vets Canada - How to verify service within the RCMP:

Dianne recently met with Edmonton Vets Canada (VC) (<https://vetscanada.org>) staff to gather information and develop a networking relationship. VC offer crisis and emergency transition services to military and RCMP veterans who are in desperate need of assistance. They are funded by federal and provincial governments and are a registered service provider with Veteran Affairs Canada.

The local VC office requires a streamlined method to verify an RCMP member's service, to offer them services in a timely manner. Prospective clients often present themselves to their office with no proof of service, for various reasons. Validation of service information cannot be made through Veteran Affairs. Potential clients are asked to provide their Date of Birth, Regimental Number and Dates of Service in the RCMP. Once a member, retired or otherwise, is a client of Vets Canada, VC may become their Veteran Affair advocate with a signed consent form.

Dianne approached S/M Leilani Collins with the above. Leilani consulted with some important national partners who all agreed one point of contact for such inquiries would be beneficial for everyone as this will offer consistency and assist in providing timely assistance in the confirmation process. Nationally, the team who works on the Veterans Record of Service Card has agreed to assist in this important verification process. As such please guide your contacts at the Veterans Canada to send the request to RCMP.DigitalSignature-SignatureNumerique.GRC@rcmp-grc.gc.ca In order to provide confirmation, they will require the following:

Full name,
Date of Birth,
Regimental number

Kees on behalf of Linda Plomp, Treasurer:

- Financial update on Linda's behalf:
Chequing Account $39,639.19
Total GIC's $100,763.10
- Linda will be presenting the 2023 budget at the General (AGM) / Dinner Meeting on the 29th of November.

Kees on behalf of Bruce Allen:

- Bruce spoke to Bob Stewart, who is the subject matter expert on the web software. Bruce has no experience with the software and would not feel comfortable building a site with it. At this time Bob is not sure if he can take this on as he is still busy with gift shop website. Bruce indicated he will have a look through the software, then consult with Bob and will advise if he/they decide to take this project on.

An alternative is to use national's web site and have them manage it. We are already on the site but only with our basic Division information. Other Divisions are using this site as their own division web page.

Jerry Plastow, Past President:

- Silent Auction items are in place for the Christmas Dinner.
- A family in Athabasca area has been selected for a Christmas Hamper.
- The Guest Speakers coming to our 29th November meeting are from the Veterans Association Food Bank in Edmonton serving a wide area of Northern Alberta.
 - After discussions, Jerry made a Motion to present a $500 Cheque to the Veterans Association Food Bank, Seconded by Tom Burkett, carried.
- Jerry advised we had several of our widows' invitations returned indicating incorrect addresses Bob Bacchus will check into this.

Elaine Schnepf, Director- Boost program:

- Elaine informed the group that several cards have gone out to our members and Associate members for various health concerns and family losses.

Eric Lafoy, Director:

- Eric advised to date all ideas of how to celebrate the RCMP 150 next year have come from the Vets, and nothing has been decided upon yet from the Force. An obvious problem is that Divisions have not yet been given budgetary direction. He will update after the next meeting on any changes.

Tom Dunlop, Director Parking Passes:

- Tom would like something placed in the next Newsletter to remind all our members about the parking passes as there are many that overlook this benefit.

Jim Medley, Director, Director:

- Jim presented a donation from the Gift Shop Edmonton Division in the amount of $5,000.00.

Meeting Adjourned at 11:30 AM
